

Clash of the Mammoths

Trailside Museum of Natural History

In the Ice Age, they battled.
See their skeletons now still locked in a prehistoric death grip.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA STATE MUSEUM
Fort Robinson State Park, Crawford, Nebraska

Trailside Museum of Natural History

Wonder as you view the skeletal remains of two huge mammoths lying as they have since the Ice Age - tragically locked together in combat! You will not experience anything like this one-of-a-kind fossil discovery anywhere else in the world! Also witness the dramatic fight depicted in a huge, awe-inspiring mural.

Explore a wide variety of rare Nebraska fossils such as an ancient rhino, giant tortoise, mosasaur skull, full-standing mammoth, and more!

Shop for treasures in our museum store and gallery! Find books, gems, toys, jewelry, souvenirs, and Native American arts & crafts.

Located at beautiful, historic Fort Robinson State Park. Three miles west of Crawford, NE on Hwy 20, about 2 hours from Interstate 80.

Open April - October

April, May: Open Monday - Friday 10 am - 5 pm. (Mountain Time Zone)

Memorial Day - Labor Day: Open 7 days a week from 9 am - 6 pm.

September, October: Open Monday - Friday 10 am - 5 pm.

School groups and special tours available by reservation.

(308) 665-2929

www.trailside.unl.edu

Visit our other museums.

Morrill Hall & Mueller Planetarium
www.museum.unl.edu (Lincoln, NE.)

Ashfall Fossil Beds
www.ashfall.unl.edu (Royal, NE.)

UNIVERSITY OF Nebraska
Lincoln

